DEDICATION

Mr. Bob Abrahamson

After thirty-three years of teaching at Proctor High School, Bob Abrahamson is finally getting a new chalkboard - really not a chalk board at all. This year, the year that will be Mr. A's last year of teaching before he retires, the school has installed a dry marker board. Now after a hard day of Algebra, Mr. A can go home with clean, dust-free shoes. He won't have to holler "Aw, jeeez!" at a shattered piece of fresh chalk. Instead of the fervent clackety-clack that accompanied his energetic lessons, his students will now hear only the whispery squeak of a felt tip pen.

Mr. A, in his years at Proctor as a teacher, coach, administrator, athletic director, winter carnival coordinator, and advisor to many classes and activities, says that his students never let him down. He has generously returned the favor for more than three decades. Mr. A has been tirelessly dedicated, unfailingly supportive, and unmistakably loud. He was athletic director for eleven years, junior varsity basketball coach, and he still referees soccer games throughout the state. He was student council advisor for ten years, and has also been advisor to both eighth grade and freshman classes. He served as assistant principal for a decade, and even took over the job of principal for six months. For as long as anyone at Proctor High can remember, Mr. A's ceaseless enthusiasm and bullhorn of a voice have led the annual winter carnival.

Anyone who was ever in Mr. A's class lists him as one of their favorite teachers, for obvious reasons. Always there to help, whether with math or other problems, Mr. A has never stopped giving students his support or his smile. The chalk that constantly clings to his fingers, shoes, and clothing is proof of how hard he works and how much he loves to teach. But unlike the messy powder he wore as a medal, Mr. Abrahamson can never be replaced. We proudly dedicate the 1996 Proctorian to you, Mr. A.

Excaliber rooted in the muck to no avail.
It had sunken,
and it was gone.
Only the podlings,
dwelling in the dank of the swamp,
would ever see it again

It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

MILVIA GALLEGOS

Milvia Gallegos comes from Ensenada, Baja California, Mexico. Milvia has been in Vermont as part of a one year exchange with the World Experience program. She is hosted by the Shahan family, and has become part of the senior class at Proctor High School.

Milvia enjoys spending her free time in Ensenada taking ballet classes and playing tennis. She has two siblings, a brother, Francisco, age seven, and a sister, Marina, age sixteen. She has enjoyed her time here and will end her exchange here in June.

When asked to tell us something for the yearbook, she wrote: 'Hello, I'm Milvia, the exchange student from Mexico. I'm very happy to be here; this is a beautiful experience. My host family is very nice, and my friends and teachers help me very much with everything. Thanks very much to my host family, teachers, and new friends. I'll never forget this beautiful year.'

ACTIVITIES

National Honor Society

Top row: J. Bossi, K. Trapeni, S. Zawistoski, B. Jaquith. Front row: T. Doty, K. Follet, T. Drake, J. Jasmin

The Redfield Proctor Chapter of the National Honor Society includes students from Grades 10-12. Membership is conferred by the faculty on those students who meet these four criteria: scholarship (85 GPA), leadership, service and character. Its primary activity has been organizing and conducting quarterly honors assemblies and the annual induction ceremony. Officers for the '95 - '96 school year were Kate Follett, president; Tom Doty, vice president; Jennifer Bossi, secretary; and Brent Jaquith, treasurer. Advisor was Mrs. Vita.

Student Council

Top row: B. McManus, J. Peters, R. Pitts, K. Trapeni, C. Oberg. Middle row: C. Stevens, J. Salgo, K. Chapman, B. Hurhula, D. Horner, Z. Rayon. Front row: S. Gershon, S. Zawistoski, M. Blow, B. Finnigan, K. Garner. Missing: A. Dilts

The Proctor Junior - Senior High School student council serves the school as a governing body and tries to promote school and community interests. During the 1995 - 96 school year, the student council has sought to achieve these goals by attempting to address issues and concerns of students, sponsoring school events such as dances, and hosting community service projects such as the annual senior citizens dinner. School wide officers were elected as follows: Stacie Zawistoski as president, Jessica Salgo as vice-president, Jim Oberg as treasurer, and Brian McManus as secretary.

Girls' And Boys' State

B. Gile, M. Hurhula

Last June, Mary Anne Hurhula and Breanna Gile had the opportunity to attend Girls' State, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion Post in Rutland. The program was held at Vermont Technical College in Randolph. Over the course of five days, participants learned all the major responsibilities of running the state senate and state house. They also attended lectures by Representatives Bernie Sanders and Lt. Governor Barbara Snelling. An inauguration was held at the Vermont State House where representatives were greeted by Governor Howard Dean and other state officials. Breanna and Mary Anne had a great time at the same time they were learning about the state government.

While Breanna and Mary Anne were at Girls' State, Jim Oberg attended Boys' State, which is sponsored by the American Legion Post of Rutland at Norwich University. The Boys' State program gives high school junior boys the opportunity to learn how state and town government works in unison and to run for state and local office as well as be involved in the inner workings of government. Jim was assigned to live in the town of Kiniry. Throughout the week, he attended lectures, played sports, and enjoyed himself. Even though he wasn't elected to any state offices, he was elected to the Cemetery Commission of his town. The governor of the state, Dr. Howard Dean, was one of the major speakers. Jim was named to the All - Star Basketball Team. The week culminated with a small awards ceremony.

Members of Phantom Theatre hosted an evening of "Theater Sports" for fellow Thespians of area high schools. Fun was had by all! Phantom Theatre will participate in the annual one - act play competition sponsored by the Vermont Drama Council in March.

Peer Leaders

The Proctor Peer Leaders include 53 students in grades 9-12 who have been trained in communication skills, developing healthy self-esteem, and maintaining a drug and alcohol free life style. They listen to and support their peers in these same issues. During the course of the year, they also coordinate many activities. This year they sponsored Proctor's Red Ribbon Week observance, Great American Smoke - Out Day, Secret Santa, a lock - in following exams, a talent show at the Meadows, and a tribute to graduating seniors. They also worked on the First Night New Year's Eve celebration, plans for a Rutland area teen center, and gang prevention.

Top row: D. Protivansky, N. Huizenga, M. Hogan, M. Hurhula, B. Gile, B. Winkler, R. Bailey, T. Drake, M. Stattel. Second row: B. McManus, A. Gates, S. Takacs, A. Laviolette, V. Welch, R. The 1995-96 staff worked hard to produce the book you are now reading. This year's yearbook includes several innovations including first time ever color pages of students, new layout for the senior section, and a unique cover. After a rocky start, the staff pulled together and all staff members undertook a variety of assignments and met their deadlines. With no veteran staff, this was quite an accomplishment and provided lots of training for those members of the staff who will go forward to produce the 1997 yearbook. The staff appreciates the support of the Rutland area and Proctor communities for our successful patron campaign and thanks Kate Follett ('96) and Mark Saks of Josten's for their help and support.

The third GAPP exchange between the Schiller Gymnasium in Weimar, Germany and PHS will take place in 1996. Seven students along with Mrs. Burke and Miss Phillips will spend seventeen days with host families. In addition to attending school, daily excursions to various museums, castles, and cities are planned. Students also enjoy all that Weimar, a city of 60,000 has to offer them.

They end their three week program in the Bavarian capital of Munich. The fairy tale castle of Neuschwanstein is always a favorite destination for the GAPP-ers. A day in Salzburg, Austria and a trip to the salt mines in Berchtesgaden mark the end of a very memorable stay in Germany.

French Club

Top row: J. Bossi, J. Salgo, M. Turner, A. Corliss. Front row: Mrs. May, advisor, B. Winkler, B. Salerni, J. Jasmin, K. Chapman

Bon Voyage: Mrs. May and seven students spent ten days in England and France during April vacation. The French language took on new meaning and became a reality in Paris as they visited the Eiffel Tower. Notre Dame Cathedral, Versailles and the Louvre, not to mention the shopping! They then left Paris and traveled to the famous Chartres Cathedral and on to the Loire Valley to the beautiful Renaissance castles: Chenonceaux and Chambord. Their final sightseeing in France included visits to Mont Saint Michel, the monastery on an island, and the D-day Beaches where allies invaded France in 1944.

After saying a quick au revoir to France, they boarded the ferry for the crossing of the English Channel and on to London. Big Ben, Houses of Parliament, the Changing of the Guard and Piccadilly Circus were just a few of the highlights in London. They then traveled to the university town of Oxford and on to Stratford-Upon-Avon where Shakespeare came alive as they visited his home and the thatched cottage of his wife, Anne Hathaway.

After ten exciting yet educational days, the students traveled to the airport and headed for their homes in the United States. The benefits of this trip will last a life time!

Winter Carnival Week

Given the tremendous snowfall of December and January, everyone expected great things for winter carnival. But Mother Nature surprised us and brought spring like, muddy weather right before the week began. Nonetheless the 1996 Winter Carnival, dedicated to Mr. A., was a carnival to remember. With no snow and lots of mud, we had to adapt and thanks to Mr. A., Mr. Wager, and Mrs. Clark, it was a dirty success.

The week included clash day, hat day, spirit day and the talent show. The games that replaced traditional winter sports were the M & M dunk, indoor soccer, volleyball, a mile run marathon, tug-of-war, capture the flag, broom hockey, floor hockey, and a relay around the tennis courts. In the Proctor tradition, students rallied and had fun despite the uncooperative weather.

Varsity Girls' Soccer

Coach Bjarne Skjetne and his Varsity Girls' Soccer team sure had an interesting season. Overall the team was 4 - 9 - 1. Captains Meghan Burke, Erin Ward and Stacie Zawistoski did their best to try to lead their team to a productive season. For the most part they played well. They had a couple big wins and some great games. Heading into playoff action they had won their last two games and were very confident. The Whitingham Trojans however spoiled their hopes by defeating them 2 - 0. All in all they had a good season.

Varsity Boys' Basketball

The Varsity Boys' Basketball team, coached by Chris Hughes, showed improvement over last year's team. The season started out well but injuries and some tough losses in tight games made the season a tough one. With most of the team healthy, they met with some success in the playoffs, but did not make it to the final rounds.

Varsity Girls' Basketball

Back Row: Coach Baccei, V. Welch, J. Gradziel, R. Brough, B. Salerni, Assistant Coach Wood; Front Row: M. Atwood, M. Robertson, M. Burke, A. Prescott, H. Beauregard.

The 1995-96 Girls' Varsity Basketball team, coached by Bruce Baccei and assisted by Chris Wood, started out the season on the right foot by winning four of our first five games. This year's team was very young since it included one senior, three juniors, and five sophomores. They played well for the most part, but lost a couple of close games that they should have won. The team ended the season 8 - 13, losing to Rochester in the first round of the playoffs. Overall it was a learning experience for every member of the team. The returning members are looking forward to the strong squad they will have next season, when they are joined by the freshman.

Junior Varsity Boys' Basketball

The J. V. boys had a very successful season this year. They went 10-8 in the regular season, giving them one of the best J. V. records in Proctor's history. Proctor hosted the first annual Jason Robert's Tournament this year. The boys won the tournament, playing IHM for the championship. This year there was one junior, three sophomores and six freshman on the team. The team was coached by Terry Champine in his second year as the J. V. coach. The J. V. boys also participated in the West Rutland tournament. All of the J. V. players are looking forward to another successful season next year.

New Coach Chris Wood did a good job this year with the girls' team. Their record was 5-7, a great improvement over last year. They were unable to play all scheduled games due to sickness and the small size of the squad. They had five full time players on the roster that worked hard and played very well. They are looking at a strong JV program next year with a lot of girls coming up from the middle level.

New York, New York!

On St. Patrick's Day weekend, Proctor students traveled to New York where they went to the N.Y. Stock Exchange, NE studios, the Hard Rock Cafe and the theatre. Saturday began at the U.N., followed by the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island. Everyone went to Greenwich Village and then broke into smaller groups; some spent more time in the Village; others went to the Museum of Natural History, Planet Hollywood, the All Star Cafe (where diners included Sylvester Stallone and Muhammed Ali), or back to the Hard Rock. Late evening included the Empire State Building and a 3-D movie. On the way home they stopped in Hyde Park to tour the Franklin Roosevelt home and the Vanderbilt Mansion. Chaperones include Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, Mr. Bloodworth, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Hahn, Mr. Merrill and Mrs. Rafter.
